

LEAVING A LASTING IMPRESSION ON OUR CHILDREN
100 YEARS
HIGH SCHOOL

Enfield High School

Echo 2001

*“Leaving a
Lasting Impression”*

Together

Walking through these strange halls
Just four years ago
We never would have guessed
All that has transpired here.
The hearts that have been broken
The friendships that were made
The words that we have spoken
These memories will never fade.
As the sounds of our voices disappear from these halls
Memories will forever linger on
We have all come so far
We have grown up
And we have done it together.
As we go out
Each our separate ways
We can look back
With some fondness in our hearts.
We survived
And we have survived it together.
Our road has been long and winding
We always shared the same direction

But we take the road that leads away from home.
Although we will be apart
At one time we were together
Experiencing it all.
They tell us to prepare for "someday"
But what does "someday" mean?
Destiny is just a state of mind
Don't conform to obstacles set before you
Make the road conform to you.
And so we will all leave
Some of us to find new hallways
Some of us to find new paths
All of us knowing that we will make it through.
And when we meet again, years from now
We can look back and laugh
Remembering the good times
And all the fun we have had
This is our last goodbye-
Things will never be the same-
Good luck to us all
And I hope we will meet again

-Lindsay Sylvester and Melanie Baxter

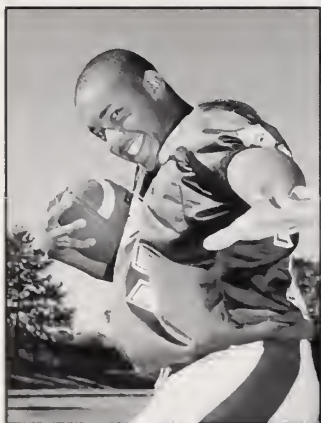

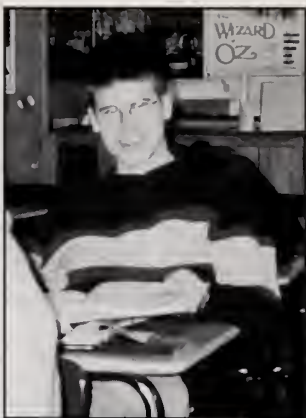

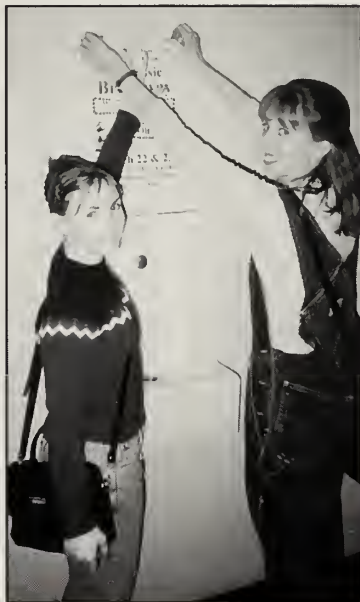

dedication

This year the class of 2001 dedicates the ECHO yearbook to Mr. Rossi. It is not unusual to walk by his class and hear him talking about "la la land", looking at ceilings, and banging heads. This different teaching style and his dedication is why Mr. Rossi touches so many lives. It is also not unusual to see Mr. Rossi spending countless hours tutoring students. Mr. Rossi, we hope you find your pink bus to "la la land."

Dr. John Gallacher

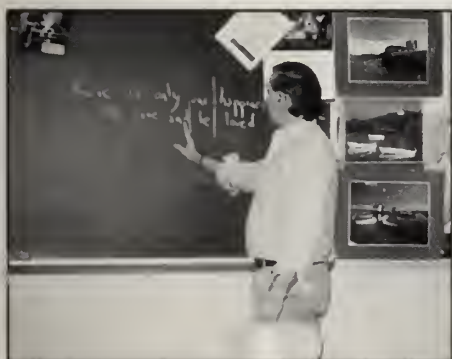

Mr. Anthony Torre

Teaching at Enfield High School...

"Enfield High is a very unique place in today's challenging world. We are large enough to offer many opportunities yet small enough to let all of us get to know each other well. It is hard to be anonymous at EHS! Working with Enfield High's students bring me tremendous personal satisfaction. Our staff and administration care about the welfare of our students!"

~ Ms. Ogonis

To The Class of 2001:

"In the past 4 years, all of you have a place in my heart, and now that you are leaving I pray that you take a piece of E.H.S with you as well. Remember ALWAYS to thank and honor your mom and dad."

~ Mr. Barnes

"How wonderful it is to see students work to become bilingual~ especially in today's world!"

~ Sra. O'Neill

"Why would anyone want to do something other than teach? You get to expound on your favorite subjects, then you can test to see if anyone has actually been listening. More often than not they even believe you, and occasionally they tell you that you have changed their lives."

~ Dr. Celio

"For of all sad words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these:

'It might have been.'"

~ John Greenleaf Whittier

School Events

and Activities

DECA

The Distributive Educational Clubs of America (DECA) is a national organization affiliated with marketing students. Students learn how products and services are produced, distributed, and handled in the global market. Members are responsible for running the school store, checking inventory, and maintaining financial records. The Marketing II classes also create corporations that are actual services to Enfield High School students. These businesses include Bang!, Hearty Harvest, and Cinimod. The Co-Presidents are Sebastian Guite and amie Mulkern, the Vice-President is Athena Wrann, Rachel Hinkel is the Treasurer, Rachael Bourque is the Secretary, Elizabeth Howard is the Parliamentarian, and Erin O'Dell is the Historian. DECA is advised by Mrs. Stone.

FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America is open to all students who have taken or are taking a business course. FBLA meets once a month to discuss upcoming activities. Most activities are community service oriented such as collecting coats for Button Up Connecticut, painting pumpkins and food drives for various organizations. Bell Italia

On April 14, 2000, a few students and advisors took a trip of a lifetime. On this day they embarked on a journey that would take them to Milan, Venice, Florence and Rome, Italy. They would enjoy first class service (along with first class airplane seats), great hotel stays, and some enjoyed seeing the Pope. Along this journey they met other travelers from Woodstock, Connecticut, as shown in the group pictures. Their trip ended on April 22, 2000, yet their memories will always be with them.

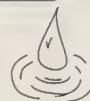

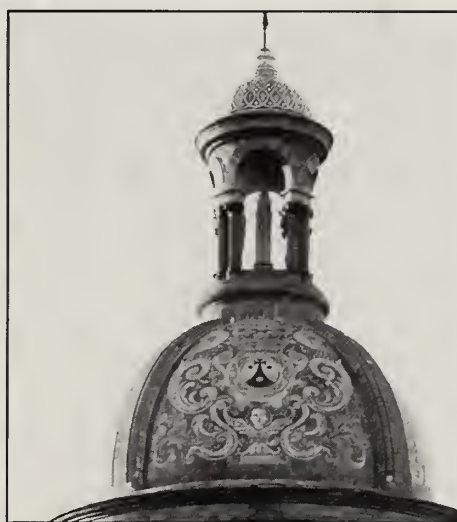

Quebec

On Thursday, February 9th, 41 students and 10 adults left for Quebec City. While there, visits were made to the Huron Indian reservation, the Winter Sports Complex for snow tubing, "La Cabane a Sucre", Montmorency Waterfall, St. Anne's Basilica, Old Quebec, and the Carnaval parade. A great time was had.

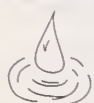

Spain

Over February vacation a combined group of twenty-eight EHS and Fermi students and teachers went on a ten day tour of Spain. They visited the cities of Barcelona, Granada, Seville, Cordoba, Toledo and Madrid. Highlights of the trip included Flamenco shows in Granada and Seville, the discoteca, the Prado museum in Madrid, and interacting with people. "Era un sueno..."

Mock Trial

The fast pace and excitement of the courtroom trial is examined and demonstrated in this activity. Students practice and then compete in state competitions against other schools where they run a courtroom and are judged on their performance in argument and debate. Members include Alex Dulude, Eric Zimmerman, Matt Airhart, Chris Comer, Arthur Cote, and Moira Caraballo. Miss Rittenband is the advisor.

Skating Team

Maria Raffia, Ashley Desmond, Stephanie Such, Lori Hynes

Unified Sports

The Unified Sports team has 40 participants with a combination of kids with and without disabilities. Run by Special Olympics, the team plays in a sport setting. In the fall they play soccer and in the spring they play volleyball. With the help of the volunteer coaches/teachers the team practices once a week. All their hard work pays off at the end of the season when they compete against other high school teams. The team's season highlight was winning the soccer tournament this fall. We are proud of all the members of the team and volunteers. Keep up the great work and have a great next season.

Poetry Coffee House

March 27, 2001

With an audience of over one hundred students, staff, friends and relatives, twelve of Enfield High's best poets read their original pieces aloud. Sharon Shultz, Rachel Hinkel, Mr. Democracy, Steve Romaniello, Tracy Savoie, Shannon Fitzsimmons, Caitlyn Pilch, Katie Droney, Paige Steinert, Arthur Cote, Vinnie Spanilo, and Seeram Kirpaul all read their inspired words to a rapt audience. Listeners also enjoyed gourmet coffee, biscotti, and baked goods during the two intermissions.

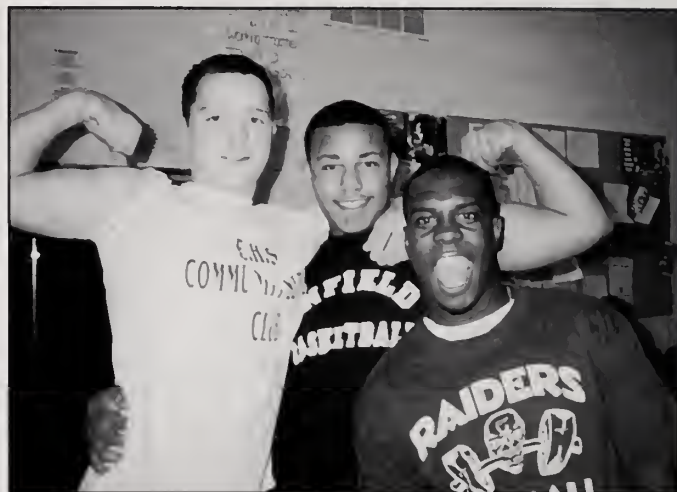

Kick Ball

The EHS kick ball team went 4-1 in the fall season. It was organized and captained by Dave Baugh.

Weightlifting Club

This club grew this year with a total of twelve members. Mr. Stasio is the advisor. Each member trained with a workout that was based on his personal skill. The boys are eager to pump iron next year.

Student Council

All students are welcome to the bi-monthly student council meetings. Besides general attendance, five students are elected as officers and each homeroom sends a representative. The Student Council organized the Homecoming Dance, the pep rally, the chain link contest, the holiday door decorating contest, and the Mr. EHS pageant.

Model United Nations

Students take the parts of diplomats from U.N. member states around the world. They visit their real counterparts in New York City, prepare drafts of resolutions on many crucial international issues, and debate them with students from across Connecticut at a weekend simulation of the UN General Assembly.

Raider Review

The Student newspaper publishes school news, student opinions and editorials periodically during the school year. Staffers conduct interviews, gather data, edit and print their own stories.

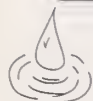

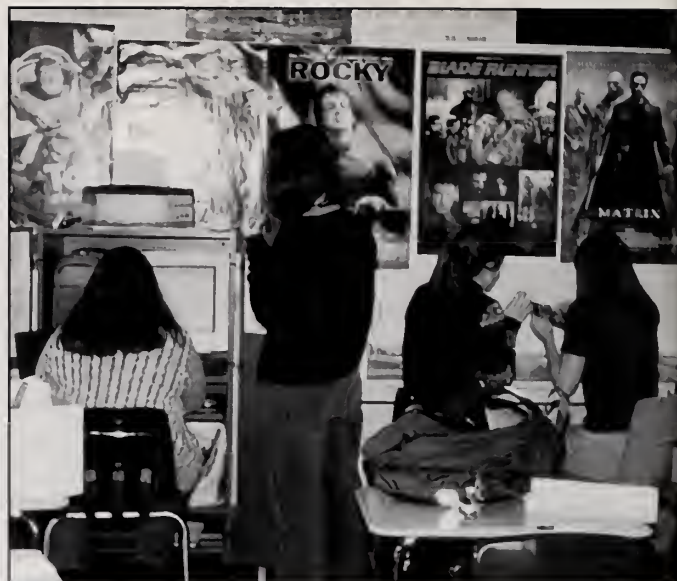

Electric Go-Cart

The event is held at RHAM high school in Marlborough, CT in early June. It's sponsored by Central Connecticut State University, which trains Tech Ed teachers. Competitors come from all over Connecticut and beyond. The all-day event has many heats in three categories: Solar-electric go-cart, spring-powered vehicle, and pedal-powered vehicle. There is no changing of drivers. In each case, the vehicles must be new creations from parts, not simple modifications of working vehicles. The course is a quarter-mile athletic track of packed gravel.

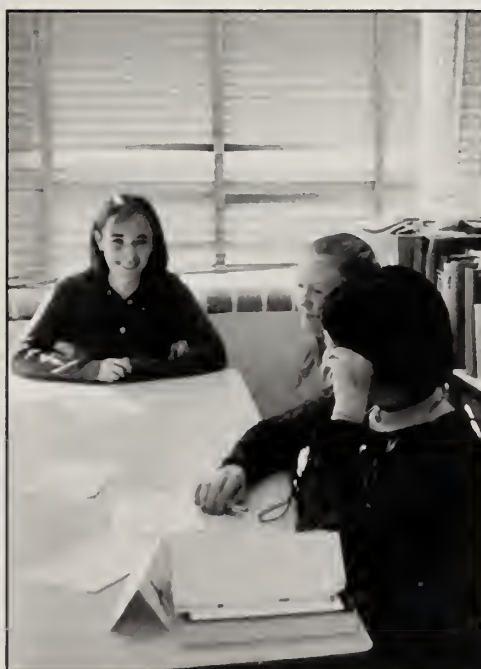

Yearbook

The 2001 Echo was organized, written, and produced by Sarah Prentiss, Emily Cappa, Rachel Hinkel, Lauren Nadeau, Sarah Boyd, Allie Murray, Becky Scavotto, Jessica Finnie, Vanessa Ciafflione, Kaleena Obregon and Megan Kelly. Yearbook involves long hours after school laying out each page, typing the write-ups on all activities and sports, selling advertisements to defray the cost, as well as marketing and selling the books. Ms. Darin and Mrs. Simmons are the advisors.

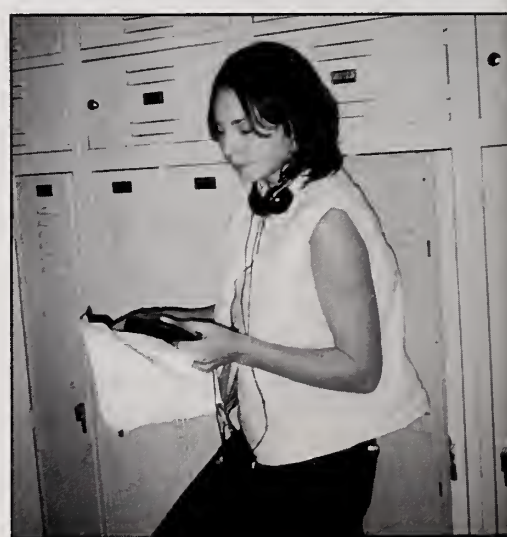

Diversity Alliance

The Diversity Alliance promotes understanding and tolerance of people whose lifestyles and values are under-represented at Enfield High School. The club organizes events which increase dialogue among races, genders, religions, the disabled and others whose viewpoints need expression.

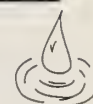

Lamplighters

There are actually two groups involved in the Lamplighters: the Drama Club, with Cassie Kubinski as President and Shannon Fitzsimmons as Vice-President, and The Thespian Society, with Becky Panosky and Jeffrey LaMondia as the co-officers. The Thespian Society is made up of actors that have put in more than one hundred hours of acting time. This school year the Lamplighters produced the comedy "You Can't Take It With You" and "Lizzie Borden of Fall River". The Lamplighters is advised by Miss Rittenband and Mr. Senior.

As Schools Match Wits

Another triumphant year for the "As Schools Match Wits" team. Members included Alex Dulude, Kevin Reilly, Steve Romaniello, Mike Smuda, Mike Szewczyk and advisors Mr. Smith and Dr. Taylor. The winning scores were as follows:

Springfield Central: 290-60

Northampton: 245-80

Northfield Mt. Hermon: 275-95

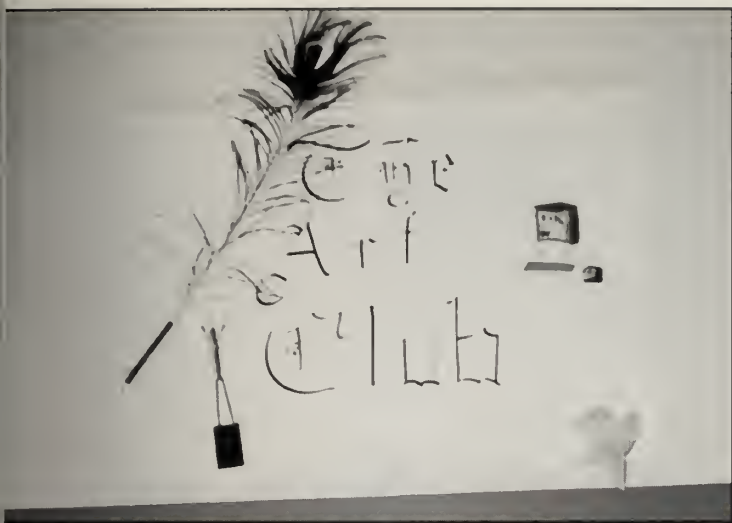

The Team

Art Club

The first year of the art club was a success. Projects included painting and creating 3-D murals in the classroom and on the doors, designing a website, and helping out around the school. The club is made of fifteen members, and Ms. Glickman is the advisor.

Peer Mediation

Conflicts between students are part of daily life in schools today. Mediation is one approach to dealing with these problems peacefully. Instead of the adults in the school trying to "solve" these teen conflicts, student mediators help their peers reach a resolution.

Football 2000

The Raiders had another successful year. Under the guidance of the first year head coach Jay Gaucher, the Raiders ended the season with a 4-7 record. The season started off shaky with an injury to senior captain, Eric Boissy. This led to an outstanding play by senior captains, Peter Beebe, Jason Cerrato, as well as David Sanchez and Andrew Yurack. A highlight of the Raiders was having "the most dangerous kick return duo in the state." The Enfield Press said Jason Cerrato tied the single season record for punt return with 3 and Junior David Sanchez tied the career kick return record with 6. Cerrato ended with 13 touchdowns, Sanchez with 9, Boissy and Yurak with 2 each. Cerrato, Sanchez, and Yurack were named All-Conference for their excellent play.

Boys' Soccer 2000

The boys' varsity finished the season with a record of 11-3-2, good enough to tie for second in the NCCC. Captained by seniors Tony DeVito and Scott Allen, the Raiders improved on their 9-6-1 1999 season. Highlight wins came against chief rival Somers, 1-0 and a 2-0 regular season finale against a hot Tolland squad. Tournament play, however, was unkind to the team as they suffered an upset in the first round, 3-2 against Maloney of Meriden. Individual accomplishments included all-conference honors for Tony DeVito and Tom Dugan. Tom Dugan, a junior sweeper, also garnered all-state recognition. Sophomore goalie Paul Fleck and his defense recorded 8 shut outs. With nine returning starters, 2001 looks to be the year.

Their season's highlight was being the third girls soccer team to ever enter the state's tournament. The team ended with a record of 7-8-2. They wish the best of luck to the two seniors (captains) and have a very positive outlook on the next season where there will be 8 returning seniors.

The team had great leadership from senior captains Meghan Chase, Chrissy Furey and Chris Lee along with the rest of the seniors Sarah Burke, Rachael Bourque, Amy Bedner, Allie Murray, Kim Barker and Danielle Sampson. Three out of the five Enfield girls qualified for states and two out of the three went on to the state finals. He finished the season with All Conference honors in the top 10 in the NCCC and 21st in the Class MM state meet. Junior Dan Hayden provided consistent finishes all season. Freshmen Nick Droke and Kevin Widen worked hard and rounded out the team.

This year's Indoor Track team looked exceptional. Captains Aimee Hayward and Sarah Prentiss led our team through the season. Freshmen captains Tim June and Steve Dyer pushed everyone through with success. The girls' 4 X 200 relay team, which included Megan Thayer, Audrey Paradis, Jess Gildea, and freshman Karen Christoffersen, qualified for States. With the new coaching, practice style and the experience of seniors Joe Frangiamore and Sebastien Guite the Raiders went on to a 9 - 11 record overall. Led by All-Conference junior Jeff Mitchell, captains Sebastien Guite and Steve Anagnostou, the Raiders led the State Tournament for the first time in twenty years. Wrestling 2001-2001

With a young but talented squad, the Enfield grapplers were lead by senior captains Peter Beebe, Victor Pomerleau, and Aaron Wrann. This year's season was capped by several highlights despite several injuries. Among these highlights were dual meet wins over strong Middletown, Canton, and Westhersfield teams. The Raiders also finished 3rd in the challenging NCCC tournament with Dan Clement, Alan Mascena, Will Arcari, Aaron Wrann, Victor Pomerlano, and Jeremy Kauffman all placing top 4 in the league. The season was capped by Aaron Wrann's 5th place finish in the State Open. Wrann became the first wrestler in 15 years to place at the prestigious competition. Girls' Track

The 2000 girls' track team had many seniors graduate the previous season and added a new coach, Todd Cunha, to the team. Dedication and a positive outlook is what the girls track team had to make a productive season. Captains Meghan Thayer, Sarah Prentiss, and Erin Rapacki did an excellent job motivating the team to do their best in each event. This showed when Aimee Hayward went to states for the high jump and conquered her personal best at 5'1". Accompanying her was Karen Christofferson going for the 50 yard dash and the 4 X 8 relay team. The girls are proud of their season and cannot wait to try to surpass their own personal goals next season.

Boys' Track

The 2000 boys' track team had an excellent season with captains Dave Orton and Adam Kapchus. Although they lacked in numbers, that did not stop them from winning 2 meets which has not been done in the last seven years. Not only breaking this streak, the relay teams along with a couple of boys from individual events went to states. The 4 x 1, 4 x 4, and 4 x 8 relay teams included Adam Chamberlin, Nick Duston, Jeff Moulton, Reid Andrews, Dan Stevenson, Peter Beebe, Keith Piscottano, Dave Orton and Jim Casey who also went to States for three other events. It took a lot of hard work but in the end the boys represented Enfield High School and made us proud.

Girls' Tennis 2000

Led by junior captain Athena Wrann and co-captain Danielle Schools, the 2000 girls' tennis team conquered all the competition. Combining grace and ability, the girls were unstoppable. The current seniors, Rachel Hinkel, Athena Wrann, and Chrissy Furey played well and with style. Looking forward to each day together the team carried with them success.

Stand out players for the Raiders were the pitching staff: Fred Medina, Rob Whitten, and Mike Meyer. Center-fielder Steve Anagnostou also had a tremendous season.
